A Note from Larry

"She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins."

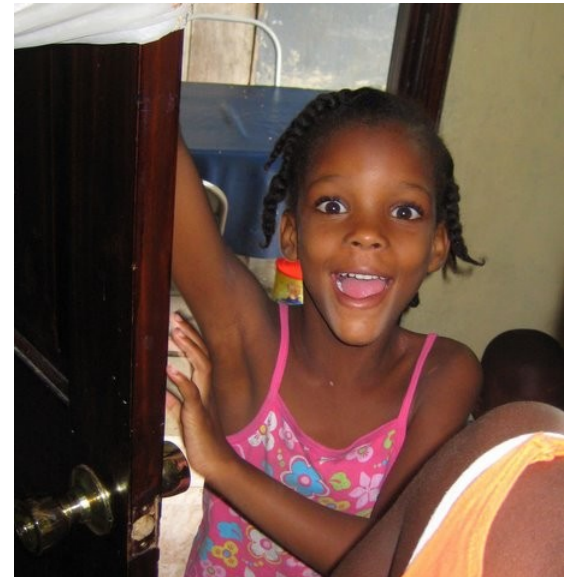

Matthew 1:21

During this time of year, we celebrate a time of family and friends coming together. It is this time of year when the homeless and needy of America are thought of, and the shelters are filled with people wanting to serve. It is a time when people will step out of their comfort place and go to the areas that His people are all year long.

In Haiti, Christmas comes and goes without the American traditions. Calling family and friends together is not something special to this time of year. They live their lives together all year round. The thought of not being in touch with family, for most Haitians, is totally out of the ordinary. Churches in Haiti will not let the birth of the Savior pass without notice, but they will honor and celebrate it together. No big dinners or big decorations, no lights or pine trees; just humble people, praying to their Savior, and waiting for His return.

Who is more blessed? Luke 6:20 says, "Looking at his disciples, he said: Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God."

Jesus knew what we would do with our wealth and what we would call our blessings. However, those people in the world that must have God to get through each day; they are the ones the kingdom is being prepared. The rest of us who have Jesus as our Savior, are the beneficiaries of that.

I hope that you do have a very Merry Christmas. I am grateful and humbled by the generosity that has been shown to us so that we may show His love to others. We will continue the fight and hope to have you along side.

In Christ,
Larry
